TAFT MANAGERS FICTION EXPERTS

Senator Dixon Shatters Their
So Called "Table of Delegates."

JUST TABULATED FOOLISHNESS

Glaring Misstatements of Everything Akin to Fact Are Handed Out by Chairman McKinley—Trying to Mislead Simple Minded People as to the True Status of the Present Political Situation.

Washington, May.—Senator Dixon at the national Roosevelt headquarters gave out the following statement:

"The so called 'table of delegates' daily issued by the Taft headquarters has reached the ridiculous stage. Two or three great newspapers that profess to print the news in their news columns are also being put in the ridiculous class by printing as fact Mr. McKinley's tabulated foolishness. No other term can fitly describe the Taft 'table of delegates'."

"The Taft people know that their 'table of delegates' is a fiction pure and simple. On Friday, May 3, they issued their printed bulletin claiming 469 'Taft delegates' elected to date. Laying aside campaign enthusiasm, the cold fact is that this 'table of delegates' is made up by the Taft managers with the aid of a lead pencil, their fertile imaginations and a piece of paper. Any one who will take the time to analyze it will instantly realize its glaring misstatements of everything akin to fact. For instance, twenty 'Taft delegates' are claimed from Missouri in the Taft column. As a matter of truth that is easily confirmed by an examination of the records, twenty-four delegates elected in Missouri have been instructed for Roosevelt, two for Taft, four uninstructed and two delegates legitimately in contest."

"In the 'Taft table of delegates' McKinley gives the entire South Carolina delegation of eighteen to Taft, notwithstanding the fact that twelve of the South Carolina delegates have already in letters over their own signatures positively stated that they would not vote for Taft, but would vote for Roosevelt. In the New York Herald of May 4 appears the Herald's special dispatch from Spartansburg, S. C., containing an interview with another one of the South Carolina delegates, in which he positively states that sixteen of the eighteen delegates from that state will not vote for Taft, but will vote for Roosevelt at Chicago, still the entire eighteen are being carried in the Taft table."

"In the Taft column McKinley places the entire list of twenty delegates from Mississippi, notwithstanding the fact that the four uncontested delegates from that state have publicly announced their intention to support Roosevelt, and the equities of the contests of the other sixteen delegates rest with the Roosevelt contesting delegation from that state."

"There are included in the Taft column twenty-eight delegates from Georgia, notwithstanding the fact that under the laws of Georgia it was impossible to legally hold a convention at the time these twenty-eight delegates were elected, as it was impossible to tell until some time in the early part of April who are the legal voters in that state. A perusal of the latest number of Collier's Weekly will explain how the twenty-eight 'delegates' in the Taft column from the state of Georgia were obtained under a hurry up call from Washington. Their state convention was convened sixty days before any legal convention can be held under the laws of that state. Every one of these twenty-eight illegal Georgia delegates are now in contest."

"In Pennsylvania the Taft managers put thirteen votes in the Taft column, being seven in excess of the real number of Taft delegates from that state."

"In the Taft column are placed eighty-three delegates from New York. Only two delegates from that state were instructed for Taft. Despite the fact that twenty-one of the New York delegation have declared that they will support Roosevelt, Mr. McKinley arbitrarily adds every New York delegate to the Taft column except seven."

"In this fictitious 'table of Taft delegates' McKinley adds twenty from Louisiana, notwithstanding the fact there are three contesting delegations from that state."

"In Virginia he adds the entire delegation of twenty-four to the Taft column notwithstanding the fact that four of the Virginia delegates elected in the first convention have declared their intention to support Roosevelt and notwithstanding the fact that, with the exception of six of the twenty-four delegates, the remainder are now in contest."

"These are only samples of the ridiculous 'claim of delegates' with which the Taft managers are daily trying to mislead simple minded people as to the true status of the present political situation. As a matter of fact, of the 740 delegates to the Republican national convention elected up to Saturday, May 4, Colonel Roosevelt has 291 delegates, Taft 137 delegates, Cummins 10 delegates, La Follette 36 delegates, 112 uninstructed delegates and 154 delegates whose seats are in contest."

"THESE ARE THE COLD FACTS IN THE CASE."

his supporters are fighting for throughout the country."

"That principle is, 'Let the people rule.'"

"In a total vote of about 148,000 Mr. Taft received less than 4,000 more than Colonel Roosevelt. But, small as it was, it registered the direct vote of the people, and Colonel Roosevelt asks that it be followed in spite of any technical claims."

"The position thus taken is a refreshing and a significant contrast to the sordid violence of machine politics which gave Mr. Taft delegates in Indiana, where no one doubts a direct preference primary would have swept the state as it did in Illinois for his rival and which gave New York and Kentucky to Taft."

The Pittsburgh Leader contributes the following comment on Colonel Roosevelt's action:

"The attitude of Theodore Roosevelt in the case of the eight Roosevelt delegates at large elected at the Massachusetts primary Tuesday is only what might have been expected of him."

"It is unusual for a man engaged in a great political battle to surrender anything to the enemy, even under the demand of a plain principle, but that is what Roosevelt has done."

"In urging the eight delegates to vote for Taft because the state's preferential vote showed a plurality for the president is exactly what every one who knows the real Roosevelt expected he would do."

"HE BELIEVES IN AND ACTS THE SQUARE DEAL FOR AN ENEMY JUST THE SAME AS FOR A FRIEND. THE SQUARE DEAL IS THE SQUARE DEAL. ROOSEVELT IS SQUARE."

"The Square Deal" is the caption under which the Cleveland Leader prints the following appreciation of Colonel Roosevelt's action:

"Once again Theodore Roosevelt has stamped his public service with the great seal of the square deal. Once more he has set for his countrymen an example of sturdy adherence to principle and unyielding devotion to plain justice."

"In renouncing his clear legal title to the eight delegates at large from Massachusetts and demanding that the will of the people of the Bay State shall be made effective despite his own technical victory, the former president has set himself so far beyond and above the sordid practices of professional politicians that even his bitterest foes must admit the purity of the motives and the strength of the purposes of his presidential campaign. Mr. Roosevelt has lost eight delegates who were legally his own. He has delivered to the opposition eight convention votes that could have been cast for him. But he has gained infinitely in the faith and trust of his countrymen. He has done as the nation has learned to expect Theodore Roosevelt to do."

That the "square deal" should actually be injected into politics is a great surprise to the New York Tribune. The Tribune regards Colonel Roosevelt's honesty as "novel," that organ having been long associated with the Taft administration's campaign and having given unstinted support to the crooked methods employed by Mr. Taft's managers. The Tribune says:

"That novel action should point the way to a higher standard of political ethics in the conduct of a contest among Republicans for a great honor and responsibility like the presidency."

As was to be expected, the comparatively light vote cast at the first presidential preference primary has been cited as conclusive that the device is a complete failure and the creation of revolutionary dreamers. It may be pertinent to observe that the criticism comes from adherents of the losing side who were predisposed against primaries of all kinds. The loss of the power to dictate to conventions selected by framed up caucuses does not arouse pleasant thoughts in such minds. To be sure, the primary system has not yet been perfected, nor its use become familiar to the voters. But its results in California in the few opportunities so far presented for its trial have been sufficient to justify its adoption.

Surprise has been expressed by some that Governor Johnson would be willing to bury himself in the obscure position usually occupied by the vice president of the United States. The vice president has in the past borne the distinction of having his name coupled with that of the successful candidate for president during the campaign and then of being speedily forgotten. But take this little tip—if Uram W. Johnson is elected vice-president of the United States he will not be forgotten so soon as his predecessors have been. With him as presiding officer of the United States Senate what a rattling of dry bones here would be! Some men have been mere figureheads in the position. But Governor Johnson will be no figurehead in that position or any other. The office of vice president would take on a new significance and if the Senate did not acquire a new usefulness the writer is a bad guesser.

Commenting on the cases and effects of the primary results, one citizen was trying to find out on Wednesday how much it would cost him to get the Los Angeles Times to back him to go broke. Not a bad idea if he really has an ambition to get rich.

For a fine example of a thorough sportsman let us commend to you "Uncle" Henry Wheeler, the gray-haired contestant in the Sierra Madre-Mt. Wilson race. Every year since the race was started four years ago Mr. Wheeler has been on hand, always finishing near the last. Knowing that he had no chance to win against the trained youngsters or to capture a prize at all, he entered purely for the love of the game. He always finishes and in good condition. For two successive races he rode from Pomona to Sierra Madre on his bicycle on the morning of the race. Considering the fact that he is well past sixty years that feat alone is worthy of note. And not the least notable thing about his entry in the race is the entry blank which he turns in. It is always the neatest of the lot. The writing is almost as fine and even as copperplate engraving. He is quiet and unassuming, a thorough gentleman. He has always to stand a considerable amount of joshing from people who want to know what time next year "grandpa" expects to finish the race. If they knew him they would take off their hats to him as the best sport of the bunch. He stands in shining contrast to some of the youngsters who refused to run on the plea that there were not enough prizes to make it worth while unless a man had a cinch on first place.

IS WORK OF ART

George Morgridge Publishes Special Flower Festival Supplement

Mt. Pleasant (Iowa) News.—Several Mt. Pleasant friends of Mr. George Morgridge, of Sierra Madre, Calif., have recently received a copy of a very handsome special edition of his paper, The Sierra Madre News. It is a flower festival supplement and is a work of art. It is printed on highly finished white enameled paper, and the beautiful half tones of views about Sierra Madre and scenes in connection with the flower festival held there, as well as the reading matter and advertisements, are a great credit to the editor, his mechanical force, and his equipment for handling such high class work. Many of the views were taken by Mr. Morgridge himself. It will be remembered that he was the editor of the first Wesleyan College Annual, which was published by the class of 1906 with which he graduated from Wesleyan.

Highland Park Herald.—Editor Morgridge of the Sierra Madre News has issued a superb edition of his paper devoted to an exposition by half-dozen illustrations and otherwise, the beauties and advantages of this enchanting foothill town. The work is the product of his home "shop" and is of such excellence that city printers are amazed.

MUSIC BUSINESS GROWING

M. C. Doerflinger is building up an extensive business in all kinds of musical goods. His stock, which includes pianos, talking machines, records, sheet music, etc., has recently been largely increased and he can supply anything in musical that one may desire. Talking machine owners will find some interesting improvements in the latest type of Edisons, which he has recently received. He is now keeping his stock of records for Edisons and Victors right up to date, so there is no use in going out of town for anything in the musical line.

Talk About Making Money--Can You Beat This?

Of course, you can make it if you work hard enough, and save long enough. You don't have to do either in the fertile San Jacinto Valley. The following is only a few of the recorded instances and happenings of the past week.

Mr. Douglass of Los Angeles closed a deal one morning, starts home to get the wife and kids, barely reaching there before he received a telephone message offering $1500.00 for his bargain, which he accepts with a smile, and buys another place for the fifteen hundred.

Mr. Holland of Redlands bought a place on the advice of a friend, without even seeing it, gets a raise of $800.00 more than he paid, which he pockets and buys again.

Mr. Robinson, an old orange grower of Pasadena, is making extensive purchases. He is going to sell all of his citrus holdings, and buy the choice apricot, pear and other fruit lands around San Jacinto (these lands are conceded the best in the whole country for the purpose). He is delighted with his purchases, and with the valley in general.

Mr. Gates, of Streator, Illinois, purchases forty acres, and says he would not sell for three times for what it cost him. He is already at work improving and beautifying it for a permanent home. Mr. Gates says he made a detailed trip by auto all over Southern California, seeking a desirable location, and that San Jacinto is the only place where he found every condition absolutely satisfactory.

Mr. Sturgess, our Riverside neighbor, buys three ranches, and says he is going to invest every cent he has in San Jacinto lands, just as fast as he can dispose of holdings elsewhere.

There are hundreds doing the same thing, getting rid of their high-priced ranches, already too high to go higher, and investing in and around San Jacinto, where the profits and big advances are assured. Every acre and town lot in this beautiful valley is a great bargain at twice the present price, but with the Santa Fe loaded to the guards almost every trip to the valley, especially Saturdays and Sundays, it won't be long until you will have a Pasadena and Riverside proposition confronting you. The thing to do is to get here before that happens. Come over and see for yourself. We will guarantee you a good time, and the prettiest sight you ever saw.—San Jacinto Board of Trade.
